OUR

ABOUT THE CITY.

CHRISTMAS IS A-COMIN.
Christmas—it's a-coming—
Hear it, hear it humming—
Comin' o'er the valley and the hill;
All the doors unloeking—
Hanging up the stockings—
Big enough for Santa Claus to fill!
Rich a awful worry—
Children are a-burrying—
Worried 'bout old Santa Claus' bringin'
Joy to their playtime.
Waitin' to the daytime.
To hear the reindeer bells go "tinkle-ting!"

NEWS IN KENTUCKY.

MOUNTAINEERS KILLED.

Four of Them Hit the Dast in a Fight Among Themselves Near Whitesburg, Ky.

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 14.—The Commercial has received by mail from its correspondent at Whitesburg, Ky., a story to the effect that four mountaineers were killed near there a few days ago in a fight among themselves. Whitesburg is the county seat of Letcher county in the heart of the mountain region along the Virginia border and miles from a railroad.

According to this story Alex Bryant, John P. Mullins, John H. and David L. Cray were to Shelby Gap, a few miles from Whitesburg near the Pike county border, on business. A couple a quarrel arose in which Bryant said to have been shot through the head and neck. The remainder of the party returned to Whitesburg, armed themselves and fled to the mountains, fearing arrest. Soon afterwards the other three shots were heard. Mullins a little later appeared at the house of Detective J. W. Wright, suffering from serious wounds. He said he had proposed to the Craft boys to leave the county, to remain to remain and turn state's evidence on the killing of Bryant, taking chances on acquittal.

The Crafts refused and the fighting was resumed, the Crafts using Winchester and the Mullins a revolver. The Crafts, according to the story, were killed and Mullins received wounds from which he is believed to have died, as he was in an exhausted condition when he left Wright's house. Mullins was the only surviving son of Irvin Mullins, who was killed in the Mullins-Breming tragedy at Pound gap in May, 1900. The Crafts boys were his cousins. A party was organized and went in search of the Crafts boys, who were found lying by the side of the road. The mountaineers tightly grasped in their hands.

DEMOCRATIC LEADERS.

They Are Gathering At Frankfort—Will Decide Whether Campbell Shall Fill Contest.

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 14.—The democratic leaders gathered here Wednesday night for Thursday's meeting of the party committee at which it will be decided whether or not Senator Campbell, who left Wright's house, should be the state legislator for the office of governor and lieutenant governor, into which W. Taylor and John H. Wright were inaugurated Tuesday by the republicans. The members of the different committees who arrived Wednesday night were J. C. W. Beckham, who filed contents before the state legislature for the office of governor and lieutenant governor, into which W. Taylor and John H. Wright were inaugurated Tuesday by the republicans. The members of the different committees who arrived Wednesday night were J. C. W. Beckham, who filed contents before the state legislature for the office of governor and lieutenant governor, into which W. Taylor and John H. Wright were inaugurated Tuesday by the republicans.

Cincinnati Creditors.

Owensboro, Ky., Dec. 14.—Wright & Pines, carpet dealer and upholsterers, were closed Wednesday morning on an attachment for rent. Lowry & Groebel, of Cincinnati, are the creditors. When Wright & Pines came to settle with their Owensboro creditors, Lowry & Groebel agree to take the stock of goods.

Christmas Turkeys For New York.

Mayville, Ky., Dec. 14.—Mr. Everett Brightman, mail carrier here, owns a large commission house, left this city Wednesday night with two large refrigerators carloads of live turkeys as well as other Kentucky poultry. The poultry weighs about 30,000 pounds in the two cars. They are for Christmas consumption in New York city.

A Threatening Letter.

Paris, Ky., Dec. 14.—A threatening letter of threatening nature have been received by County Judge Purnell and County Attorney Dutton. Threats were made against the judge's house and town with dynamite if Forest Lang is not hanged, as was Clarence Williams. Officials regard it as a hoax.

The Town Marshal Shot.

Richmond, Ky., Dec. 14.—A special from Irvine, Exall county, says that at a republican jubilation last night in honor of the inauguration of Taylor, Edgar Potts, town marshal, was killed, and Fred Ascraft, while, and Charley Wallace, colored, were mortally wounded.

Informal and Robbed.

Vineburg, Ky., Dec. 14.—The residence of R. T. Pugh, private secretary of Congressman S. J. Pugh, was entered by robbers and he and his wife were chloroformed while the house was ransacked. Seventy-five dollars in money was taken, but silverware was laid aside.

Another They Caught Shooting.

Shelbyville, Ky., Dec. 14.—In a drunk run toward a house creek, John C. Caley, Caley Fugate shot and fatally wounded Frank Farmer. Fugate made his escape.

Chosen as Bishop.

Portland, Me., Dec. 14.—Robert Conner, pastor of St. John church, Boston, Wednesday was chosen bishop of the Episcopal diocese of Maine.

Deaths in Cuba.

Washington, Dec. 14.—Brooklyn, at Havana, reports the death of Santa Clara, on the 11th inst. of Sergt. Charles A. Lennaway, a musician in the band of the 10th U. S. Cavalry, and that of Andrew Pullar, a civilian, who died on the 10th inst. at Santiago de Yelow River.

Last Miss Foe.

Akron, O., Dec. 14.—Louis Sey and John B. Carr fought and the former struck Carr in the face with a club, completely cutting off his nose. Sey was arrested.

HOLIDAY RECESS.

Both Houses Will Adjourn on Wednesday, December 20 to Wednesday, January 8.

SHORT SESSION IN SENATE WEDNESDAY

Bill Introduced Providing For Telegraphic Communication Between United States and the East.

Debate on the Currency Bill Continued in the House—Washington Memorial Day Ignored by the House.

Washington, Dec. 14.—Wednesday's session of the senate continued for a few minutes. Some routine business was transacted but nothing of consequence was transacted.

Among the bills introduced in the senate Wednesday were the following:

By Mr. Lodge, to provide for telegraphic communication between the United States of America, the Hawaiian Islands, Guam, the Philippines, Japan and China, and to promote commerce.

The proposed measure authorizes the postmaster general to contract with an American cable company to pay by the United States of America not exceeding $400,000 a year for 20 years for the electrical transmission of official messages of the United States.

GENERAL SIR WILLIAM GATACRE.

BRITISH FORCES UNDER HIS COMMAND DEFEATED WITH GREAT SLAUGHTER AT STORMBERG, CAPE COLONY.

Honolulu, Guam, Manila, Hong Kong and some point in Japan. The cable must be in operation by January 1, 1903. The bill further provides for a duplicate line of cable, in order that there shall be no interruption of communication. The amounts required to be made up by the United States shall be used only for repairs and renewals of cables, etc. The company must at all times be capable of fulfilling its contract or forfeit the payments by the United States, and the company fail to transmit the government messages during a period of two years the government's obligation shall cease. After 20 years government messages shall be transmitted at half rates forever. In case of war the government may take possession of the lines and stations of the company.

By Mr. Perkins, to authorize the secretary of the navy to change the material used in the construction of the dry docks at League Island, Pa. and Mare Island, Cal., from timber to concrete or stone, at an increase of cost for the two docks of not exceeding $700,000.

The currency debate in the house lasted from 11 o'clock Wednesday morning until 10:30 Wednesday night with a recess of three hours for dinner. The pressure for time to speak continued, as most of the members desired to make contributions to the literature of the occasion. Much of it, however, seems to be for home consumption. There has been very little cross-firing thus far, and no exciting or dramatic incidents. So far as known 12 Democrats, eight from New York, two from Pennsylvania and one each from Maryland and Massachusetts will vote for the bill. The speakers before the recess were Messrs. Fowler (N. J.), Lacey (Ill.), Cushman (Wash.), Hamilton (Mich.) and Burton (O.), Republicans for the bill, and Messrs. Brandegee (Ark.), Wheeler (Ky.), Benton (Mo.), Fox (Miss.), Plummer (Tenn.), Sulzer (N. Y.), Cowherd (Mo.), Otis (Va.) Gains (Tex.), Democrats, and Mr. Bell (Col.), populist, against it.

The house adopted a resolution for a holiday recess from Wednesday, December 20, to Wednesday, January 8. Mr. Richardson, the minority leader, asked that the house adjourn over Thursday, to give the members an opportunity to participate in the Washington memorial exercises, but Mr. Payne, the majority leader, objected, saying George Washington, if alive, he thought, would be in favor of the house proceeding with the transaction of its business.

Mr. Richardson (Tenn.) asked unanimous consent that the house adjourn over Thursday, in order that the members might participate in the Washington memorial services. Mr. Payne (N. Y.) objected.

Mr. Moody (Mass.) asked unanimous consent that a committee of five members be appointed from the house to join a committee of three from the senate to be present at the unveiling January 18 of the statue of Daniel Webster, presented to the city of Washington by Simon Hutchins. Mr. Bailey asked why the rules should be suspended to do honor to an illustrious American when the house had just refused to do honor to George Washington, the centenary of whose death was to be made the occasion of memorial exercises Thursday. He objected. Thereupon at 5 o'clock the house recessed until 8 o'clock.

THE JOLO TREATY.

Agreement Between Gen. Bates and the Sultan of Jolo Sent to the Senate and President.

Washington, Dec. 14.—The following is the main part of the agreement between Gen. Bates and the sultan of Jolo, better known as the Jolo treaty, which has been sent to the senate by the president:

The sovereignty of the United States over the whole archipelago of Jolo and its dependencies is declared and acknowledged.

The United States flag will be used in the archipelago of Jolo and its dependencies on land and sea.

The rights and dignities of his highness, the sultan, and his datus, shall

Maj. March Is Still Pursuing Aguinaldo, Who Has An Escort of Only Fifty Trusted Men.

He Is Only Twenty Hours Behind—Whole Trovince Surrendered to Capt. McCalla, of the U. S. Cruiser Newark.

Manila, Dec. 14.—The following dispatch, dated Cervantes, December 5, has just been received from a correspondent with Maj. March's battalion: "Maj. March, with Capt. Jenkins and Cunningham, Lieuts. Tompkins, Rucker, McClelland and Power, and 125 men, is about starting to continue the principal town in the province of that name, to the northeast, through an absolutely desolate country and over a mountain 10,000 feet high. He is pursuing Aguinaldo, whose escort, now reduced to 50 men, is known to be there.

According to the natives, Aguinaldo intends to disfigure himself and take a circuitous trail toward Bayambon, province of Nueva Viscaya.

"Maj. March, with 300 men, arrived at Cervantes in the heart of Tila mountains on the evening of December 3, about 20 hours behind Aguinaldo, who had believed he had found an inaccessible refuge. On December 2 the American commander had a wonderful fight in a cloud enveloped mountain pass, 3,500 feet above the sea, completely routing ten Gregorio Del Pilar's forces of 200 picked men in a position almost strong enough to rival Thermopylae.

"Gen. Pilar died at the front of his men, urging them to make a stand, until the ball of a sharpshooter pierced his head. His followers tried to carry away the body but were compelled to lay it down.

"Two of the Americans were killed and were buried by their comrades where they fell. The others, carrying nine wounded, camped for the night on the top of the mountain, an eminence of 4,000 feet, suffering greatly from the cold blasts. In the morning they moved down the trail to Dagaqui, where they learned that Aguinaldo, with a few men and three women, all carried on litters borne by Igorrotes, had passed along the same trail to Cervantes, where he was during the fight. A runner had brought him the news of the death of his chief of staff. He was greatly affected and prepared instantly for flight.

"Gen. Concepcion, with six officers who had deserted Aguinaldo, surrendered when Maj. March reached Cuyayan, province of Lepanto.

"On arriving at Cervantes Maj. March's battalion was without food, except rice, and had only a small supply of ammunition. Maj. March secured five days' rations, made arrangements for his sick and wounded, and, having chosen 50 mounted and two unmounted men, resumed the chase at daybreak."

Mabini, former secretary of state in the seceded Filipino government, and Aguinaldo's ablest adviser, although of late withdrawn from official connection from the insurrection, has been captured by Gen. March near Rosales. He will be brought to Manila. Mabini has been the leader of the extreme anti-American faction. Gen. Tirao, commanding the Filipinos in the province of Cayan, surrendered the entire province of Aparri on December 11 to Capt. McCalla, of the United States cruiser Newark. Capt. McCalla appointed him civil governor of the province, subject to the approval of Gen. Otis.

The surrender was with the honors of war. Capt. McCalla reviewed the insurgents and Gen. Tirao reviewed the naval forces. The Americans prevented anyone while the insurgent forces were attacking them.

Capt. McCalla has communicated with Maj. Hutchell's battalion of the 24th infantry, which is now 90 miles south of Aparri and has been enjoying a pleasant march.

The gunboats Princeton and Helena have entered the Aparri river. The latter will take supplies for Maj. Hutchell, and the former will bring 500 surrendered rifles to Manila.

Yours Hanged By A Mob.

Pine Bluff, Ark., Dec. 14.—A Negro whose name is not known was hanged by a mob Tuesday night. His crime was assault on a white woman. Jones is just across the Arkansas border and the Negro's body, still hanging, was visible from passing trains Wednesday. No details of the case have reached here.

Two Killed On The Crossing.

Tarrentum, Pa., Dec. 14.—Hector Linsell, aged 20 years, and Miss Ella Mengel started Wednesday to do some Christmas shopping. To shorten the distance down-town they took the railroad track, and were caught at a sharp curve by the Butler express and instantly killed. The remains were terribly mangled.

Condition of Lieut. Brumby.

Washington, Dec. 14.—The condition of Lieut. Brumby was not so favorable Wednesday. Wednesday night, however, his physician reports him as somewhat relieved and expresses the opinion that he will show some improvement Thursday.

My son has been troubled for years with chronic diarrhea. Some time ago I persuaded him to take some of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. After using two bottles of the 25-cent size he was cured. I give this testimonial, hoping some one similarly afflicted may read it and be benefited.—THOMAS C. BOWEN, Glenora, O. For sale by J. What better or more acceptable Holiday Gift than this superb edition of a work which is a library in itself?

There are unfounded rumors current in Vienna that the government has resigned or is about to resign on account of the persistent Czech obstruction.

The French minister of foreign affairs, M. Del Caste, has received a telegram from Lord Salisbury containing with him on the recent death of M. Delcasse's father.

Sir George Kirkpatrick, ex-lieutenant governor of Canada and ex-governor of the house at Ottawa, died Wednesday. Sir George had been ill for some time.

Secretary Long has taken the first step towards carrying out his project for the consolidation of the naval bureau under one head and has prepared a bill to be introduced immediately in congress for that purpose.

An advance of 50 cents over present prices on all classes of furniture was made at the semi-annual meeting of the National Association of Chamber and Case Work Manufacturers, held in Chicago Wednesday. This advance will take effect January 1.

The Business Men's league delegation, appointed to press the claims of St. Louis for the republican national convention next year, left St. Louis for Washington Wednesday, headed by ex-congressman Nathan F. Barrett.

The British steamer Salt, Capt. Wm. Owen, from Philadelphia, November 28 for Havana, has been posted at Lloyds as missing. The Salt was a steel vessel of 2,015 tons gross register and has never been heard of since she sailed.

Prominent lumbermen from different parts of the United States, who are holding a conference at St. Louis, Wednesday adopted a resolution praying congress to appropriate funds for six portable jetties or steel caissons, to be used in aiding navigation on the Mississippi river and its tributaries.

Revised returns from all the wards and precincts in Boston show that Thomas N. Hart, the republican candidate for mayor, was elected Tuesday by a plurality of 2,894, his total vote being 40,475, while that of the democratic nominee, Gen. P. A. Collins, was 38,594.

The government of Brazil will officially protest against the award of the arbitration tribunal at Paris of the frontier between Colombia and Venezuela, which territory, it is said, belongs to Brazil and was not included in the protocols establishing the tribunal, which questioned the British-Venezuelan questions.

The Western Association of Parlor Manufacturers met Wednesday at the Great Northern, Chicago, and discussed an advance in prices of furniture in the local market. A committee of seven was appointed to adopt a scale of prices and report at a meeting to be called within a week by the president.

Marine Hospital Physicians Sail. New York, Dec. 14.—Five marine hospital doctors sailed on the American Line steamer St. Louis for Southampton. They are the advance guard of a new service of the government which is to be established abroad. The doctors are to be attached to the United States consulates at different large ports in Europe and will look after the average passengers coming to the United States. They will go aboard of all vessels leaving for our ports and examine the steering passengers.

Railroad Commissioners' Report. Washington, Dec. 14.—The annual report of the commissioners of railroads states that the increase of surplus assets over liabilities for 1906 over 1905 for the 26 line grant and bonded roads is $42,300,000. The report renews last year's recommendations for a transcontinental air line from Kansas City to San Diego. Similar routes, the communication adds, should be opened between the cities of Chicago and San Francisco, Chicago and Seattle and Inland and San Diego.

Will Lay the Corner Stone. Washington, Dec. 14.—Senator Jos. L. Hawley, ex-senator Arthur Brown, William Glasscock and David Dunbar, a committee representing the United Volunteer Monument association, called on the president Wednesday and invited him to lay the cornerstone of the monument to be erected in honor of the Utah volunteers. The president signified his willingness to accept the invitation if his duties would admit. The president will make a written reply to the committee later on.

Double hanging. Valdosta, Ga., Dec. 14.—Jim Godding and Wash Powell were hanged here Wednesday for the murder of a country store keeper named Vickers about two months ago. They protested their innocence to the last.
